

Oral Diagnosis & Treatment for the Small Animal Practitioner

Washington State University College of Veterinary Medicine is committed to offering outstanding continuing education seminars for practitioners and their veterinary technicians on cutting-edge topics in veterinary medicine.

Instructors Tammy L. White, DVM
Diplomate, American Veterinary Dental College

Pat Frost-Fitch, DVM
Diplomate, American Veterinary Dental College

Date/Time May 22–23, 2010, 8 a.m. – 5 p.m. (both days)

Place WSU Riverside Campus Spokane WA (Rooms to be announced)

Topics Saturday Lecture, May 22nd

- Oral Pathology pediatrics to geriatrics
- Updated dental terminology
- Dental charting
- Using dental radiography effectively for diagnosis and treatment planning
- Anesthetic and pain management considerations for dental procedures including local/regional anesthesia

Saturday Lab

- Instrument use/care/sharpening
- Regional/local nerve blocks
- Intraoral dental radiographic positioning/troubleshooting/interpretation

Sunday Lecture, May 23rd

- Oral treatment for common dental problems in the cat and dog
- Periodontal disease—save it or lose it. Using dental radiographs and clinical findings in decision-making.
- Periodontal flaps for open root planning or bone grafting.

- Tooth resorption—extraction tips for these challenging teeth
- Stomatitis/CUPS—surgical management with multiple extractions
- Worn, fractured and discolored teeth. Diagnostic tips, radiographs and a review of treatment options. Surgical or open extractions.

Sunday Lab

- Sharpening your extraction skills
- Use of mucoperiosteal flaps, proper sectioning of multirrooted teeth and proper instrument use
- Dentin sealant application

CE Credits & Registration Fees

- $450 registration fee (plus $100 if your technician will be joining you)
Sat. & Sun lecture & lab—12 CE credits
- $250 registration fee (plus $100 if your technician will be joining you)
Saturday only lecture & lab—6 CE credits
- $250 registration fee (plus $100 if your technician will be joining you)
Sunday only lecture/lab—6 CE credits
- $200 registration fee (same for technicians only)
Sat. & Sun. Lecture only - 8 CE credits

Contact

For further information, registration, cancellation/refund policy, etc., go to <http://www.vetmed.wsu.edu/ce/programs/dentistry.aspx> or contact Karen Hornfelt @ 509.335.5862.